

[f] and [v] PRACTICE

MEETINGS

1. Ask Fred if he wants to get together with us for a movie. [o-'fi:l-jə]
2. Give Ophelia a phone call after work this Friday. [fi:l], ['fɛ-bjə-wɛr-i:, 'fɛ-brə-]
3. Let's have breakfast with Phil on February fourth. of [əv] vs. off [af]
4. Would you care for a fresh cup of coffee? ['a-fən]
5. It often takes forty-five minutes to drive to Riverside. .

FOOD

1. Our office building doesn't have a very big cafeteria. [kæ-fə-'tɪr-i:-ə]
2. Vicky often feels like having fish and chips for lunch, and so do I. ['vi-ki:]
3. I don't like fast food, and neither does Vince. [vɪns]
4. Breakfast isn't as heavy as lunch for Felicia. [fə-'li-ʃə]
5. Make a reservation for a party of seven at the French restaurant. [rɛ-zər-'veɪ-ʃən], ['rɛs-trənt]

WORK

1. Ralph fell behind schedule, so we have to put in a lot of overtime. [rælf]
2. We are ahead of schedule, so we can leave first. [və-'nɛ-sə]
3. Vanessa has a lot of work, because her department is understaffed.
4. He has a face-to-face meeting with Vince to explain why we're over budget. [fræn]
5. Fran gave Tom very good feedback about his work.

MONEY

1. Phil is saving for a vacation to Las Vegas where his brother lives.
2. You have to show photo i.d. to withdraw funds. funds = money in the bank
3. Have you filled out a deposit slip yet?
4. Vicky's take-home pay is five hundred forty-four dollars. $544.00
5. So far my friends haven't paid back the money they borrowed. so far = up to now

TRAVEL

1. I need to check in for my flight by five o'clock with my carry-on bag. 5:00 p.m.
2. Vanessa used her frequent flier miles to upgrade to first class. first class vs. economy class
3. The plane is taking off in a few minutes, so please fasten your seatbelts. off [af] vs. of [əv]
4. The flight attendants will be serving refreshments shortly. refreshments = drinks and snacks
5. I have to fill out a declaration form on the plane.

WEATHER

1. Our van was stuck in traffic because of the fog. ['træ-fɪk]
2. There is a fifty-fifty chance it will rain on Friday.
3. The first football game was canceled due to flooding. ['kæn-səld]
4. Fred's father says every snowflake is unique. ['ɛv-ri:]
5. There is a belief you can find a pot of gold at the end of a rainbow. [bə-'li:f]