

- Use short answers for YES-NO questions, but don't just say "yes" or "no" like teenagers in a bad mood when they have to talk to their parents.
- Add a sentence or two to sound more friendly.

Do you own a boat? Yes, I do. But it's a small boat.
No, I don't. I wish I did.

1. Do you own a pet?
2. Do you like to travel?
3. Do you like cooking?
4. Do you ever drink coffee?
5. Did you watch TV last night?
6. Did you remember to buy doughnuts for our meeting?
7. Will you go grocery shopping later?
8. Will you see your friend tomorrow?

Are you married?      Yes, I am. I got married last year.
No, I'm not. I like the single life.

1.      Is it a nice day today where you are?
2.      Is Martha going anywhere tomorrow?
3.      Are you drinking anything right now?
4.      Were you talking to someone else earlier?
5.      Were you doing anything important before this?
6.      Will you be visiting your parents soon?
7.      Will you be making copies of your report?

Have you ever visited New York?

Yes, I have. I stayed there for a week in 2010.

No, I haven't. But I want to go there next year.

1. Have you ever visited California?
2. Have you watched any good movies lately?
3. Have you seen my pen?
4. Had you eaten before our lesson started?
5. Had the movie already started when you got there?
6. Will you have finished your homework before the weekend is over?
7. Will you have finished reading the book before you watch the movie?